

HOOMANAWANUI!

Business is quiet but if you buy your lots for less than they are actually worth and know how to build a beautiful house, some one is going to get a bargain.

Please don't bother me for a few days when I promise you something good.

this evening. Transaction of business.

The list of officers of the Pacific Hotel and Improvement Co., Ltd., appears in this issue.

Jas. F. Morgan has a four-roomed cottage for rent and the furniture of same for sale.

For office supplies go to Wall, Nichols Co. Only the best of everything is kept in stock.

The Honolulu Engineering Association will hold a meeting this evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 7:30.

A family favorite is the White Sewing Machine. It sews its way into the good graces of all users. H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., agents.

George Day, of 11 miles, is said to be the choice of the Oahu Republican Club for representative in the next legislature.

Weller's "leg" is reported variously by professional horsemen as a "bow tendon" likely to result in permanent disability and a "stone bruise" meaning only temporary trouble.

Rev. J. A. Cruzan and family depart for San Francisco next week by the Santiago. Upon arrival on the mainland the family will go to Russian River and camp during their summer.

Harold and Donald Cruzan will enter Stanford at the beginning of the year.

The new letter boxes have been installed at the postoffice and make quite a neat appearance on the mauka side of the old weather beaten building.

The new arrangement for the delivery windows promises to become popular.

The letter-box drop will be situated in a more convenient place.—Hilo Tribune.

DEMOCRATS MEET

The Democratic Territorial Central Committee will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the hall upstairs at the ma-kau-Ewa corner of Bath and Hotel streets. The primary object of the meeting is to act on the resignation of Col. C. J. McCarthy as chairman of the committee. In addition to this it is proposed to complete the organization of the party throughout the territory, and to plan for the coming campaign.

The committee consists of C. J. Mc-Carthy, J. M. Camara, S. K. Koloa, Samuel Dwight and C. J. Campbell for Oahu; J. L. Coke, John Richardson and H. Haystack for Maui; W. J. Shid-don and J. M. Sims for Kauai; Palmer Woods and Gardner K. Wilder for Hawaii.

DEATH OF KAMAIAINA

Charles E. Richardson of Hawaii Dies July 5.

Charles E. Richardson, whose death was announced from Hilo July 5, was an old kamaiaina of Hawaii, having come here some forty years ago from Rochester, Vermont. He was then about thirty years of age. He was at one time owner of Kahuku Ranch, Hawaii, and interested in the exportation of pulu fern used in making mat-trasses, the headquarters of the latter concern being at Keauhou, Kau, Hawaii.

One of his parties, sent out to gather pulu in the forests, was destroyed in the mud flow of 1865.

Mr. Richardson also owned a store which he afterwards sold out to the Hilo Mercantile Company. He was one of the popular men of the community.

He married an Hawaiian girl of Chinese extraction, named Akana. He leaves two daughters, both living, one of whom is married to F. M. Wakefield, the attorney.

KAHULUI OIL TANKS

The oil tanks at Kahului are practically finished and nothing remains to be done now save to lay the pipe from the tanks to the anchorage grounds.—

BRYAN GETS WISE

Mr. Bryan's refusal to run for governor of Nebraska is accepted by his foes as indicating that he has some political shrewdness. As the Detroit Free Press points out, were he a candidate for governor, all the resources that Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hill of New York, Mr. Gorman of Maryland and other persons, numerous and powerful, could pour into Nebraska would get poured in, in order to make an end of the chief Bryanite forever.—Springfield Republican.

IS CROKER BOSS?

The how-how over the announcement of the new Tammany triumphs that Crocker does not boss them, "that he has gone out and shall not return," is widespread and uproarious. That was what Nixon said.—Springfield Republican.

LUMBER PRODUCTION

Wisconsin led other states in lumber production in 1929, with 3,400,000,000 feet of sawed lumber, valued at $41,000,000.

The second on the list is Michigan, with a production of 3,000,000,000 feet, valued at $36,000,000. Minnesota and Pennsylvania are practically tied for third place, with a slight advantage in favor of Minnesota, whose production is given at 2,300,000,000 feet, valued at $29,- 000,000. These are the leading states in lumber business, and there is a long gap between Pennsylvania and the fifth state, Arkansas, whose product was 1,600,000,000 feet, value $17,000,000.

TOM JOHNSON'S PROGRESS

The Ohio Democrats set a good example by dating their state convention along in September, three months later than the Republican convention.

Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland is chosen to be temporary chairman by the state committee, indicating that the McLean faction has fallen out of control in that body.—Springfield Republican.

Product

Taroena Food Co., Honolulu.

Gentlemen, I wish to say that I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and at times could retain nothing on my stomach. Although I have tried a great many medicines advertised to cure dyspepsia they did me no good. A friend told me to try Taroena and it benefited me at once and I was completely cured in a month's time. I hope any one troubled with this complaint will try your food. It is a certain cure for dyspepsia for mine was a very hopeless case.

Yours truly,

F. A. GETZLER, Stage Manager Orpheum Theater, Los Angeles.

That's the true ring of merit. From all over the states we receive most valuable endorsements of Taroena.
Grateful mothers, whose baby's life has been saved by Taroena write us; invalids, unable to eat other foods sing its praises; dyspeptics after years of suffering are cured—what more do you want. Taroena fulfills every requirement for infants, invalids and dyspeptics. Try it.

Foreign Dress Goods

Notwithstanding the excellence of American printed and washable dress goods, as stated in our recent advertisement of an "American Sale," we still have to go to Europe for certain fine fabrics, such as Embroidered Etamines and Swisses, which are worked out in exquisite designs and color combinations and largely take the place of silks for summer and evening wear.

This week we offer One Hundred Dress Patterns, no two alike, of these fashionable goods, at Special Sale. The reduction is liberal, as shown by prices noted.
